

AUSTRALASIAN MILITARY MEDICINE ASSOCIATION

Maxillo - Facial Injuries / Ballistics Workshop

31 JULY 2021, 0830 - 1700 | AIR FORCE MUSEUM CHRISTCHURCH, NZ

Location: Air Force Museum of New Zealand

Date: Saturday 31 July

Cost: AUD$310.00 for AMMA members

Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea will be served and is inclusive in the cost. The seminar is open to all NZDF personnel and DDH has agreed to sponsor ten medics to attend.

PROGRAMME

Time	Session	Duration
0830-0900	Registration Arrival Coffee and Tea	30 min
0900-0915	Welcome and Introduction	15 min
0915-1015	Ballistic Trauma Amy Pullen, PhD Candidate	60 min
1015-1030	Morning Refreshments
1030-1130	Thoracic GSW Amy Pullen, PhD Candidate	60 min
1130-1230	Maxillofacial Ballistic Injuries COL Darryl Tong	60 min
1230-1330	Lunch
1330-1430	Damage Control Surgery Amy Pullen and COL Darryl Tong	60 min
1430-1445	Afternoon Refreshments
1445-1630	Christchurch Mosque Massacre First Response Dean Brown	60 min
1630-1645	Q&A Close	15 min

COL Darryl Tong, well known to many of you will lead this workshop. He is the Head of Department and the Professor of Maxillofacial Surgery at the University of Otago and a specialist surgeon for the Southern District Health Board based in Dunedin.

Dean Brown a paramedic who was one of the first responders to evacuate casualties from the Al Noor Christchurch Mosque terrorist attack will share his experiences.

Amy Pullen, PhD Candidate is a ballistic researcher for the Defence Technology Agency (NZDF). She previously worked for DSTL at Porton Down working in pyrotechnics, blast and ballistic research before coming to NZ in 2016 to work for the NZDF as an expert in lethality and survivability assessments.

Christchurch Mosque Massacre First Response

Peter Hurly / Brendan Wood
AMMA Council members – NZ Representatives

*Program subject to change without notice

Register at amma.asn.au/workshop